UPPER INTERMEDIATE	3 A	3 B
ADVANCED	4 A	4 B
ADVANCED PLUS	5 A	5 B

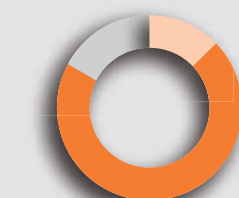

At inlingua Vancouver, we use a special teaching technique called the inlingua method. The method allows each student to speak English, practice using the language and progress quickly. Our educational materials, produced by inlingua International, are designed to complement this method. The combination of inlingua books and the inlingua method is an effective way of learning to speak English. In addition, you will be improving your grammar, pronunciation, reading, writing, and vocabulary skills. You will become accurate, fluent and confident in your English ability. Classes are fun, dynamic and interactive.

Beginner Levels 1A and 1B are from 9 AM to 2:30 PM. In this way, we make sure students cover all the key points, grammatical structures, vocabulary and the basic skills to move to higher levels.

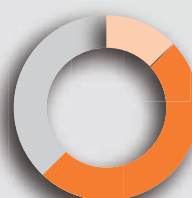

Levels 2A to 5B are from 9 AM to 12 PM. Afternoon lessons are Elective Lessons. See next page for details.

	Reading & Writing This course is designed to give students the skills they require to express themselves formally and prepare for future academic studies, work in Canada or life abroad. Students learn to skim materials, increase their active vocabulary and improve their comprehension of written materials. The course also provides students with the tools to move from simple sentence structure to forming paragraphs. Students are introduced to literature from a variety of sources including magazines, editorials, internet, textbooks and short stories. Students also have opportunities to engage in discussions based on the chosen literature which allows them to experiment with new vocabulary and express themselves orally as well.
	Grammar Plus This course teaches / refreshes basic English skills. Learners with basic knowledge in English are able to learn / review basic grammatical structures and basic vocabulary. These areas have often become passive and can be activated and practiced in this class. Do a lot of practice exercises plus use the new grammar to speak about interesting and exciting things. Join this class if you want to speak English correctly and fluently.
	Pronunciation Do you want to sound like a native? This class will correct your pronunciation of both vowels and consonants in English, and also teach you the rhythm and stress in words and sentences. Students will learn basic rhythm rules, weak sounds, linking, special intonation, and the proper use of contractions. Classes include reading out loud to isolate and practice problem sounds.
	ILT - Interactive Listening Tech. (This class is in the computer lab with a teacher) This is a fast-paced class focusing equally on both listening and speech training skills. It uses up-to-date methods of exploring news / weather / comedy / science / music / TV & movies. Listening skills are challenged by genuine media and improved through drilled speech and reading practice. As students learn to speak as a native speaker, they become better equipped to understand native speech when they hear it. There are regular homework assignments.
	English for Work This program is for all students in our study and work programs - DIY, CWE, CDP, CPP, SIP. It covers very well the customer service industry. Topics covered in class: Resume Writing, Interview skills, Dealing with customer complaints, Role plays, How to offer extra service to customers and make more tips, Make small talk, Offer information regarding products/ingredients, Make recommendations, Introduction to fair labour practices and employee rights. The instructor will also provide updated information about Vancouver's employment opportunities.
	Fluency & Accuracy Fluency and Accuracy provides students at an intermediate to advanced level with the opportunity to improve their communication and grammar skills through discussions, relative vocabulary building, consistent error correction and literature. This is achieved through an extensive amount of group and pair work in which students are encouraged to share their opinions and expand their vocabulary. Each unit includes upper intermediate grammar practice and targets all of the common problems students face when trying to communicate effectively. Students also do listening exercises where they will be put in groups to answer questions, learn new vocabulary and problem solve. Students are often expected to do the short readings or written assignments for homework.
	Academic English I A challenging course that is designed to improve your reading comprehension and academic writing skills. There is a strong focus on vocabulary and structure through reading / writing tests taken from a variety of sources including SAT, TOEFL and IELTS. The students are provided with the necessary skill sets to undertake challenging readings and express complex ideas in writing and speaking. This course is ideal for anyone taking a standardized test, planning to live or work in Canada, or for those planning to pursue post-secondary education in an English-speaking University or College.
	Slang & Idioms Expressions used in spoken English can sometimes have a very different meaning from what it seems. However, they are used every day in informal and casual situations. Understanding and knowing when to use them will help students sound more like native speakers. Idioms are a very important part of the English language, especially in social settings. This class covers both slang and idioms that are useful when communicating with English speakers and help to understand movies, television shows and music. You will learn and use new idioms and slang in conversations and discussions.
	Amazing Listening - (This class is in the classroom with a teacher) This class is about putting your listening skills to the test. The class uses music, videos and other realia to challenge the student's listening abilities and stimulate conversation. The class de-emphasizes repetition to help student cope with real-life situation where they will not get more than two or three chances to listen and understand. As weeks go by the difficulty increases. Sitcoms like "Friends" and dramas like "Desperate Housewives" are mixed in with all genres of music and other listening related materials.

ILT - Interactive Listening Tech.

(This class is in the computer lab with a teacher)
 This is a fast-paced class focusing equally on both listening and speech training skills. It uses up-to-date methods of exploring news / weather / comedy / science / music / TV & movies. Listening skills are challenged by genuine media and improved through drilled speech and reading practice. As students learn to speak as a native speaker, they become better equipped to understand native speech when they hear it. There are regular homework assignments.

Academic English II

This course has been designed for high intermediate to advanced students who are hoping to become more fluent and comfortable speaking about current issues in English. The primary focus is on vocabulary, short readings and discussions. Through web-based media, newspapers and television, students will improve both their reading comprehension skills as well as their oral communications skills in an interactive environment.

Semi Private Lessons

In small groups of 2 to 6 students, students review grammar and vocabulary that they have already been introduced to and some new ideas. These lessons contain a specific topic or focus as well as specific vocabulary and grammar structures but are not as structured as the inlingua morning lessons. Various materials and approaches are used to promote participation and improvement. These lessons provide a more relaxed environment and students can receive more attention from the teacher.

inlingua Online Learning - Take this class as an elective lesson !

It is a flexible system that complements inlingua regular lessons. Students can use the system at their own pace and contact their online teacher for support. // It includes a wide range of grammar, reading and listening exercises. Students can check their answers automatically. Students can use inlingua online Learning software from any computer at any time.

Students can upgrade their program of study if they want to take additional lessons in the morning or in the afternoon
